10.5 Proxies

Any Shareholder may appoint another Person as his proxy (and in case of a corporate shareholder, an authorized representative) to attend meeting and vote thereat on such Shareholder's behalf, provided that the power given to such proxy or representative must be in writing. Any Person possessing a proxy or other such written authorization with respect to any Equity Shares shall be able to vote on such Equity Shares and participate in meetings as if such Person were a Shareholder. A corporate Shareholder may, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, appoint any person as its authorized representative to act for and on its behalf at general meetings of the Company.

10.6 Irrevocable Proxy

So long as an Investor continues to hold any Preference Shares, the Founders shall collectively, grant an irrevocable proxy (to be substituted only in the circumstances specified hereunder) or other appropriate authority to such Investor, (or any Person designated by the Investor) to vote on such number of Equity Shares of the Founder in proportion to their holdings of Preference Shares on an as if converted basis. This proxy will be deemed to be amended from time to time whenever there is a pro rata increase or decrease upon subsequent acquisition or disposition of Preference Shares by such Investor.

If a third party becomes a Shareholder holding Equity Shares it shall be a condition of issue of Equity Shares to such third party that the third party shall grant a pro-rata irrevocable proxy along with the Founders to the Investor referred above so that the effective voting rights of all parties (including such third party) are proportionate to their respective shareholding in the Company on a Fully Diluted Basis.

10.7 Quorum for General Meetings

At least 3 (three) Shareholders including an authorized representative of each of the Investors, and an authorized representative of the Founders, shall be necessary to form a quorum for a valid general meeting unless the authorized representative of the Investors, and/or the Founder, as the case may be, provides written notice prior to commencement of any general meeting or adjourned meeting waiving the requirement of his presence to constitute valid quorum for a particular general meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be.

10.8 Adjournment of General Meetings for lack of Quorum

10.8.1 If a quorum is not present within 30 (thirty) minutes of the scheduled time for any Shareholder meeting or ceases to exist at any time during the meeting, then the meeting shall be adjourned, to the same day, place and time in the next succeeding week (it being understood that the agenda for such adjourned meeting shall remain unchanged and the quorum for such adjourned meeting shall be the Shareholders present thereat, not being less than 2 (two)).

10.8.2 Provided that if the authorized representative of each of the Investors and the Founders is not present at such adjourned meeting as is required under Article 10.7, the Shareholders shall not take such action or pass such resolutions in respect of matters referred to in Article 11.12 specified in the notice of the
